

Racine HOG Chapter donates flags to High Ground

Jim Kendall of The South/Eastern Racine Hog Chapter set up the week-end trip because when he visited the High Ground in Neillsville in the summer of 2007, he noticed that the POW flag was extremely small in size compared to the American flag.

He mentioned this to some members of the Chapter and he thought it would be nice if they could send a more reasonably sized POW flag. Some of the members handed him a donation on the spot so they went to the Chapter meeting, presented their idea and with a collection from the Chapter members and their sponsoring dealer, Racine Harley Davidson, they were able to present not just one, but three 6 x 8 foot flags to the High Ground.

Since the members seemed so interested, they planned a ride for this summer - July 26. About 30 Chapter members and friends gathered early on Saturday morning to travel together to Black River Falls. They stopped at the dealership in Black River Falls, Al Muth Harley Davidson, to do some shopping and acquainted

The SouthEast WI Racine HOG Chapter sponsored by Racine Harley Davidson, were in town this past Saturday. Some of the sites taken in were the High Ground in Neillsville, Al Muth Harley Davidson for some shopping and Castle Hill for a great prime rib dinner. Most of the group stayed at the Super 8 Motel in Black River Falls.

themselves with their dealership. Following that they rode up to the High Ground spending time to view the memorial. Dinner plans were great - prime rib dinner at Castle Hill.

They stayed overnight at the Super Eight in Black River Falls and returned to the Racine area on Sunday.
